Description :

PDF-3fc2c | Isert's book, in the form of twelve letters evidently written for publication, has excited interest ever since it first appeared in 1788. Though Isert's text was long ago translated into other languages, this is its first translation from the original German into English. Already a respected botanist and medical doctor, Isert became interested in ethnography on his arrival in Accra. Isert also ... Letters on West Africa and the Slave Trade (Fontes Historiae Africanae)
