Description :

PDF-e3612 | Freya Stark's first experience of the Near East was in 1927, when she stayed in Beirut, taking lessons to improve her Arabic. Boarding at a mission in Broumana, she began to explore the surrounding countryside, then a tranquil and idyllic area of deep, wooded valleys. In 1928 she moved to Damascus and was then able to visit Baalbek. Throughout the interwar years she travelled extensively in the Lev... Freya Stark in the Levant (The st Antony's College Middle East Archives)
