Description :

PDF-f45d8 | This is an anthology of conversations with women who lived through El Salvador's bloody civil war. Here, in their own words, women reveal how they are coming to terms with their memories of war, death squads and disappearances, and how they are using those memories to shape a new theology and work for a better future. Women from Christian communities, women's groups and political organisations de... Life Out of Death: The Feminine Spirit in El Salvador
