Description :

PDF-f262c | Farming and cattle herding were introduced in southern Scandinavia in approximately 4000-3900 cal BC. In a long-term perspective, the introduction of farming and cattle herding is one of the most important changes for humanity. There are still questions to be answered. How did the innovations spread? What were the causes for change and who were the actors involved in the process? In this publicati... This Must Be the Place: Perspectives on the Mesolithic-Neolithic transition in Ostergotland, Eastern Middle Sweden
