Description :

PDF-fb45d | Honduras occupies a strategic geographic position in Central America. Having served as ambassador to Honduras during both the Carter and Reagan administrations, Jack R. Binns offers a unique perspective on the pivotal period from 1980 through 1981, as the country moved from a relatively benign military dictatorship to a democratic constitutional leadership. Using classified correspondence, Binns c... The United States in Honduras, 1980-1981: An Ambassador's Memoir
