Description :

PDF-fde5c | “The difference between the right word and the almost right word,” Mark Twain once said, “is the difference between lightning and the lightning bug.” If sentences and paragraphs make up the basic structure of writing, words provide the planks and nails and screws. To create the best structures, we need not only good method but also good materials. So what’s the best way to pick these materi... Words, Words, Words: Choosing the Right Words to Explain Ideas and Express Emotions (The Writing Code Series Book 9)
